

Praying For...

Civil Service Workers

DAILY PRAYER POINTS

May

Every day men and women put their life on the line so that you and I can live in peace and freedom. Daily these people bravely walk in harms way so that you and I can enjoy life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

POLICE

Police officers conduct criminal investigations and combat crime among many other responsibilities. Daily they are involved in volatile and dangerous situations. The job is not an easy one. He/she must put his/her life on the line everyday. Without these dedicated people, we would live in chaos and continual fear.

Day Pray . . .

1. That they would be protected from harm.
2. They would have the courage to do the things that their job requires.
3. That they would be people of character and principles.
4. They would be free from corruption and wrong-doing.
5. They would know you as their Lord and Savior.
6. That they would serve with dignity and integrity.
7. They would be a witness to those around them who don't know Christ.

FIREMEN

Firemen not only put out fires, but they often are the first on the scene of many 911 calls. They are constantly in dangerous situations and see many gruesome things in the aftermath of fires and accidents. Let us not only pray for their safety, but for their peace of mind as well.

Day Pray . . .

8. For peace of mind.
9. For protection in dangerous situations.
10. For courage to do their job in the face of danger.

11. For wisdom and compassion in dealing with people in crisis situations.
12. For them to be effective at their job.
13. For peace of mind for their family.
14. For strength to do their job—which often requires long hours.

HEALTH CARE SERVICES

Each day doctors, nurses, EMT personnel are exposed to disease and sickness in order to provide health care services to those in need. Cancer, the flu, AIDS, Hepatitis and death are just a few of the things that these workers are exposed to on a consistent basis.

Day Pray . . .

15. Sensitivity to deal with people in very stressful and sometimes emergency situations.
16. For protection of their health from disease and sickness.
17. For peace of mind.
18. Excellence in the work they do.
19. For strength to do their job—which often requires long hours.
20. For clarity of mind to make right decisions in crisis situations.
21. For their family life to be healthy and fulfilling.

MILITARY

Pray for those who defend our nation's freedom. Let's not forget the huge sacrifice of often being separated from their family and loved ones. Many are daily in harm's way, and often wounded in battle. Some even lose their life fighting for freedom.

Day Pray . . .

22. They would be kept safe from harm and danger.
23. For the families of those in the military that sacrifice time with their loved one.
24. For peace of mind.
25. For strength and courage to do the job at hand.
26. For their emotional well being—especially for those who are overseas and in war situations.
27. For skill in what they do.
28. For compassion and wisdom in dealing with people.
29. For their relationship with Christ to be strong.
30. For them to share their faith with others.
31. They will come home safe and sound to their family at the end of their tour of duty.
